By visiting these incredible sites, ancient memories and teachings can be tapped into consciously and unconsciously to assist us on our journey. What we can create together will be magnificent!

Who Are These Tours Designed For?

These tours are designed for women as well as men; young or not so young; people interested in the mystery and sacredness of life, with a desire to know and understand more of where we've come from to assist us in where we are going and making a difference on the planet. We also explore some of the latest information out there that you may have never heard before. If you have a curiosity about mythology, sacred sites, history you were never taught in school, other cultures, and a sense of adventure as well as want to travel with like-minded people in small intimate groups, these tours are designed for you. They are not your ordinary, large group tours, being herded into buses with little time to experience the sites.

We want your tour to be a trip of a lifetime, a transformative adventure.

Cliffs at Doolin

Tentative Itinerary

Day 1 Arrive in Shannon (pick up at airport or B&B if coming a day early) & transportation to the wonderful village of Doolin for 3 nights - by the sea with lots of great Irish music in the pubs. Rest and recovery from jetlag. Later afternoon intros & orientation. This is a great place to relax and get adjusted to the time and energy of Ireland.

Day 2 - Beginning teachings this AM and then travel through the magical Burren, a lunar-like landscape with visits to Brigit's Well & Cliffs of Moher (at sunset). Optional music this evening in the pubs.

Day 3 - Free time and option of day trip to Aran islands (extra cost) on your own; walking at the seaside, shopping, golf, horseback riding (all extra)

Day 4 - Travel north through the Burren, visiting Poul nabrone Dolmen, and on to County Sligo and to our wonderful B&B on the sea at Enniscrone (west of Sligo) at Waterfront House B&B (tentative)

Day 5 - Morning teachings on the sites we will visit as well as Celtic Teachings. Today we will visit Carrowmore Megalithic Site - a field filled with 45 megalithic dolmens, standing stones & stone circles dating back to approximately 5000 BC. Carrowmore is the largest area of its type in Ireland. The remains are spread out over a number of fields. The atmosphere of the area remains quite extraordinary. Then walk (for those who desire) up to Queen Maeve's Cairn on the top of a hill named Knocknarea. This is a 60' cairn on the summit and said to be the tomb of Queen Maeve (Medb) of Connaught. The cairn has not been excavated but it covers a passage mound similar to Newgrange, only smaller. Afternoon back in our village on the sea.

Day 6 - Morning visit to beautiful Glencar Waterfall; Yeats Grave; and on to Beltany Standing Stone Circle. The ring is 44.2m (145ft) in diameter and still contains 64 stones, though originally there were eighty or more. Also brief time in Donegal town.

Day 7 - Free day here on the sea - option of seaweed baths. Option of massages too (extra cost) and/or beach time.

Day 8 - Travel south to beautiful Connemara - land of mountains, rocks, streams, and beautiful beaches. But also a land with much tragedy as so many were pushed west in the times of the 'famine to survive on what they could. Overnight at Dan O' Hara Homestead (tentative) - Connemara Heritage & History Centre.

Days 9, 10 & 11 - We will spend time today, in Connemara, the western portion of Galway county, bordered on the West by the Atlantic ocean. This is an enchanting land. Time for visiting the Heritage & History

Centre where we are staying (tentative). We will visit the impressive and picturesque Kylemore Abbey (outside only as now is a girls school) with its lovely feminine Gothic Chapel and lake walk. Also time for beaches, villages, Roundstone bodhran drum factory, and more.

Day 12 - Leave Connemara and travel to Galway City for time on your own in this lively university town. Continue on to Shannon for overnight and flights home tomorrow.

Day 13 - Flights home this morning or on your own for further travel
